BILLY'S IN TROUBLE.
I've got a letter, Parson, from my son away out West.
An' my ol' heart is heavy as an anvil in my breast.
To think the boy whose futer I had once so proudly planned
Should wander from the path o' right an' come to such an end!
I tol' him when he left us, only three short years ago.
He'd find himself a-plowin' in a mighty crooked row;
He'd miss his father's counsels and his mother's prayers, too;
But he said the farm was hateful, an' he guessed he'd have to go.

I know tha's big temptation fur a youngster in the West,
But I believed our Billy had the courage to resist.
An' when he left I warned him of the ever waitin' snares
That lie like hidden serpents in life's pathway everywhere;
But Bill he promised faithful to be keeful, an' allowed He'd build up a reputation that'd make us mighty proud;
But it seems as how my counsel sort o' faded from his mind,
An' now he's got in trouble of the very worstest kind!
His letters come so seldom that I somehow sort o' knowed
That Billy was a-trampin' on a mighty rocky road,
But never once imagined he would bow my head in shame
An' in the dust'd wailer his ol' daddy's honored name.
He writes from out in Denver, an' the story's mighty short;
I jes can't tell his mother—it'll crush her poor ol' heart!
An' as I reckoned, Parson, you might break the news to her—Bill's in the Legislatur', but he doesn't say what fur!

—The Irrigator.

Mrs. A. Finch of Mayslick has given $200 to furnish a room at Hazel Green Academy.

The daily prayer meetings, for men only, held in the vacant room in Cooper's Building, West Second, are being attended by earnest, thoughtful men. The attendance is increasing and a deep interest manifested by all. Drop in at 11:30 a. m. and enjoy the service.

The money consideration of Mr. John Altmeyer in purchasing a half interest in The Evening Bulletin amounted to $3,000. In view of Mr. Altmeyer's long connection with the paper—covering over twenty-five years service—the price paid is far below the value of the interest of which he becomes owner.

MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Carrie Hester Warner, a notorious and pestiferous character that has been a source of trouble to the Police Department for years, was arraigned in Judge Whitaker's Court yesterday on a warrant charging vagrancy. It was an easy matter to prove the truth of the charge and Hester was given fine and costs amounting to $15 and thirty days in Jail. The next time she does will be doubled.

GEORGE W. STILES.

Mr. George W. Stiles, an old and respected resident of the county, died yesterday evening at his home near Sardis, after an illness of one week.

Mr. Stiles was 72 years of age. He was a twin brother of Mr. A. J. Stiles, also of Sardis, the brother bearing an unusually striking resemblance.

Deceased is survived by his wife and three daughters—Mrs. Albert Lukins, Mrs. Asro Grover and Miss Stiles.

The funeral will take place from Shannon Church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, with services by Rev. Eichler.

The interment will be in Shannon Cemetery, with the honor of Masonry, Mr. Stiles being a member of THE LEDGER has received a copy of The World Almanac and Encyclopedia for 1905, where more useful information is crowded in 600 pages than any other book of its kind published. It is a recognized authority on statistics of every class, touching affairs not only in the United States but of every other country on the globe. As a book of reference it is invaluable, so indexed that the information sought can be readily obtained. The busy man or woman will find the book a library in itself. It is issued by The World, New York, and sells for 35 cents a copy, sent from the publishers office.

A DANGEROUS HABIT

People Should Not Walk Under a Moving Freight Train

It is not infrequent that trivial things turn out to be very serious. Those who have occasion to wend their way to and fro across Limestone bridge have become oblivious of the danger they incur in walking underneath the C. and O. viaduct that spans Bridge street, while a train is in motion.

Last evening while a Westbound coal train was crossing over a couple, heedless of the danger, passed under the bridge, and as they did several large lumps of coal jolted off the car and fell dangerously near them. Had they been struck on the head by the coal it is likely they would have been killed.

It is safe to say the incident has cured them of ever again attempting to pass under while a train is crossing over. It is exceedingly dangerous, and those who continue to do so, after this warning, are simply courting a mishap and are not entitled to sympathy should they meet with an accident.

By the way, how about the light that Council ordered placed in position nearby that pedestrians might pass this spot without having to grope their way in the dark?

DISAPPOINTED

The Tobacco Works in the East End Not Ready to Start

A report was in circulation that the Continental Company's plant in the East End would start up yesterday morning.

As soon as dawn broke men began to assemble, and it was not long before a small army had gathered, all eager to find employment.

They were disappointed, however, as the works are not quite ready to begin operations.

It demonstrated one thing—that this city has a vast number of honest, idle men who are ready and eager to work if the opportunity to do so presented itself.

All men seen congregated on corners are not loafers from choice—of course, among the number there are chronic and worthless idlers—they are there simply from the fact that there is nothing going on at present to give them employment.

When the big plant is ready the Managers will have no difficulty in securing all the help they want, and good help at that, too.

It's manufacturers that make a live and thrifty city, and that is something this city still lacks, although in the past three years she has forged ahead considerably in that respect.

Let the wheels of industry multiply until Maysville is what her natural resources demand she should be—a great manufacturing center.

NE LIEM HENRY IN "M'LISS."

One of the happiest combinations of love and adventure, comedy and tragedy, pathos and humor, that has ever been done in a melodramatic play is to be found in Bert Harte's delightful story of "M'liiss," which has pleased theater-goers for many years. At the time of its production some years ago it was the greatest success of its year, and at the time of its revival it was found to have lost none of its vogue. "M'liiss" is to be the attraction at the Washington Opera-house Monday night.

THOU SHALT NOT KILL.

Many people believe that hypnotism will eventually be used in the Courts as a means of bringing criminals to justice. Frederick Schwartz, in his dramatization of Count Leo Tolstoi's daring pamphlet, "Thou Shalt Not Kill," has preceded the Courts and has made this wonderful science the means whereby the guilty are brought to justice. There is a mysterious murder in the play and the guilty one accuses the hero of being the murderer. From circumstantial evidence he is guilty beyond a doubt, but there is a girl who believes firmly in his innocence. She possesses the power of hypnotism, which she uses to establish his innocence and bring the real murderer to justice. At The Washington tonight. Seats now on sale at Ray's.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made.

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker of Porterville, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventative of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having used this remedy. For sale by all Druggists.

D. HECHINGER &amp; CO.

It is exceedingly gratifying to merchants when the public takes interest in their advertising. It is furthermore complimentary to the intelligence of the public that they readily select the grain from the chaff. Our last week's ad to close out some lots of our very choicest SUITS and OVERCOATS at way below their value attracted many that did not actually want to buy any more clothing this season, but the quality of the goods and the price we are selling them for now were irresistible "They bought." During this cold snap we want to get rid of our surplus of heavy Ulsters and Storm Coats. If you have half an apology to buy one you will have no less than almost half their value.

When Merz's Blow Their Trumpet, Then They Co

Said a prominent merchant to one of us, "I noticed this week that most all the stores were having but there were very few people in town. The day you announced your sale there were more people in town than on Xmas Eve. Why is this?" We simply said, "DID YOU EVER HEAR THE STORY OF THE WOLF?" Saturday was the largest day's sale we have ever had except one. We advertised exactly going to do and we did it, and we don't know of any one who didn't read the advertisement and did course not as much as the goods.

THIS SALE IS FOR TWO WEEKS. We want to sell out all the winter stock. We are closing February 1st. We won't carry over any goods from season to season. We have cut the prices on Cloaks, Suits, Skirts, Furs, Raincoats, Dress Goods, Notions, Underwear, Embroideries, Laces.

Shot Intended For Birds Strikes a Passer-by in Forest Avenue

Master Newell Stickley had a narrow escape from a serious accident Tuesday at noon.

He was walking down Forest avenue, between Walnut and Lexington streets, on his way to school, and when just below the residence of Mr. C. W. Garnett he was struck by a bullet from a flobert rifle.

The bullet struck his overcoat just above the knee and passed entirely through it, tearing a hole about three inches long.

Investigation revealed the fact that a young man living near by was engaged in shooting birds out of the trees and in the street.

Aside from a great fright and the damaged coat Master Stickley escaped serious injury.

It is a dangerous pastime and it is hoped it will not be repeated.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism," says W. H. Howard of Husband, Pennsylvania. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried; in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk.
An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by all Druggists.

Later in the evening he was taken to the English newspapers are giving interesting details of a process whereby radishes are transformed into potatoes. The process is the invention of a Frenchman, M. Mollard of Paris.

He takes a very young radish and cultivates it in a glass retort, after a process invented by Pasteur, in a concentrated solution of glucose.
Starch then develops plentifully in the cells of the radish, which swells out, loses its pepperiness and acquires practically the consistency, flavor and especially the nutritive properties of the potato.

Alexander Mitchell et alq., Defendants.
In obedience to a judgment and order of sale of the Mason Circuit Court rendered in the above mentioned case at the November term, 1904, I shall on Monday, February 6th, 1905, at 11 o'clock a. m., at the Courthouse door in Maysville, Ky., proceed to sell at public auction to the highest bidder, on a credit of six and twelve months, the following real property, to-wit: That certain tract of land conveyed April 27th, 1876, to Hiram Rummans and Sarah A. Run-mans by Michael D. Burgess of Mason County, Kentucky, by a deed which he executed acknowledged according to law, and which was recorded in deed book 78, page 533, in the office of the Clerk of the Mason County Court, and which land is described as follows: "The tract of about forty acres of land together with the dwelling house and other improvements thereon where said Burgess then lived, lying on the West side of the Upper Blue Lick road in Mason County, Kentucky, and bounded by the lands of Richard Gaither, Jane Ginn, Laura Lee and George Garrison, or their successors, and the Upper Blue Lick road. This land is sold for the purpose of a division among the heirs.

The purchaser must be prepared to promptly execute bond with approved security, for the purchase price, which bond shall bear legal interest from day of sale until paid.

A BIG WILDCAT

One Captured on Kinney Mountains
Vicious Looking Beast

Yesterday morning Claude Price, the Mt. Carmel bus driver, drove up to the Market street entrance of the Postoffice, and soon after had gathered around him a goodly crowd of inquisitive people.

Besides mail matter he had aboard his bus a Lewis county wildcat. The feline was over three feet long, fifteen inches high and weighed over forty pounds. It had teeth at least a half inch long, and plenty of them, too. Its paws were massive with sharp nails about an inch long, and the eyes were large and round. It was the most vicious looking animal you ever saw, and full of fight.

It was caught in a trap by Peter Stem's boys on Kinney Mountains in Lewis county, near where the Crow people were killed.

It was addressed to Charles Weber and a Mr. Harrison of Augusta.

The dog that whips this varmint will certainly know that he was in a fight and up against a warm proposition.

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

"Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are the best thing for stomach troubles and constipation I have ever used," says J. R. Cullman, a druggist of Pottsville, Mich. "They are easy to take and always give satisfaction. I tell my customers to try them and if not satisfactory to come back and get their money, but have never had a complaint." For sale by all Druggists.

WOMEN'S NEGLECT
SUFFERING THE SURE PENALTY

Health Thus Lost Is Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong? We hear every day the same story over and over again. "I do not feel well; I am so tired all the time!"

More than likely you speak the same words yourself, and no doubt you feel far from well. The cause may be easily traced to some derangement of the female organs which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, bearing-down pains, flatulency, nervousness, sleeplessness, leucorrhoea. These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless heeded a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result. The never-failing remedy for all these symptoms is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Miss Kate McDonald, of Woodbridge, N. J., writes:

"I think that a woman naturally dislikes to make her troubles known to the public, but restored health has meant so much to me that I cannot help from telling mine for the sake of other suffering women. For a long time I suffered untold agony with a uterine trouble and irregularities, which made me a physical wreck, and no one thought I would recover, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me, and made me well and strong, and I feel it my duty to tell other suffering women what a splendid medicine it is."

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.

BRADFORD.

Born, yesterday morning, to Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bradford of Lexington street, a son. This makes even twenty children for John.
